Operating a Commercial Motor Vehicle or as a Motor Carrier in and/or through the State of Oklahoma

Tagging a vehicle may not be the only thing you need to do. Depending on how you intend to use that vehicle, you may subject you to other laws, rules or regulations by state and federal agencies.

This pamphlet is designed to assist you in determining who you should contact to determine what laws, rules or regulations you may need to comply with.

Contact the Oklahoma Corporation Commission if you:
- Need to register (tag) your commercial vehicles to operate across state lines (prorate)
- Need a fuel license (IFTA) for your commercial vehicles to operate across state lines
- Need a 72-hour vehicle registration trip permit
- Need a 120-hour fuel permit
- Transport persons or property for-hire in interstate or in intrastate commerce
- Transport your own property, intrastate, in vehicles over 26,000 pounds GVWR, GCWR and/or GVW
- Transport deleterious substances or store them in a truck yard wash pit
- Transport household goods (moving companies)
- Transport placardable amounts (manifested loads) of hazardous waste
